

 Mysore Palace
etherland

IN.L.M.M.1

Mysore Palace

Description

The Indian city of Mysore houses a palace that has undergone several reconstruction phases in the past. Opened in 1912, it is one of the country's most famous tourist attractions. Its complex integrates temples dedicated to Hindu deities, wedding and audience halls, but above all, the throne room is greatly appreciated by visitors.

Metadata

- Landmarks: Monuments
- Cadastral Number: IN.L.M.M.1
- GPS Coordinates: 12.3052° N, 76.6552° E
- City: Mysore
- Country: India