

 Ponte Vecchio
etherland

IT.L.M.F.2

Ponte Vecchio

Description

The medieval "Ponte Vecchio", or Old Bridge, is the oldest and most important bridge in the historic center of Florence, Italy. It stands between the ancient Piazza Della Repubblica and its modern counterpart, St. Peter's Basilica. It was destroyed during the great flood in 1966 then rebuilt, and it still stands and looks today exactly like it did in its younger years.

Metadata

- GPS Coordinates: 43.7679° N, 11.2531° E
- City: Florence
- Country: Italy
- Landmarks: Monuments
- Floor Surface in Square Meters: 2688
- Cadastral Number: IT.L.M.F.2