

Muskau Castle

Description

Also called Neues Schloss, the Muskau castle is a palace built in the 19th century at the request of Prince Hermann von Pückler-Muskau. Located in Muskau Park in Germany, the castle is at the center of a large complex of buildings, including the Old Castle and the Royal Stables. Its gardens are amongst the largest and most famous English landscaped gardens of Central Europe.

Metadata

- City: Bad Muskau
- Country: Germany
- GPS Coordinates: 51.5477° N, 14.7230° E
- Landmarks: Monuments
- Cadastral Number: DE.L.M.BM.2